

Biography

Duania Hall is a poet, writer, actress, singer, and soon to be “Best Selling” author to many books of poetry and stories of her life's experiences. This beautiful Hawthorne resident prides herself in being a "Custom" poet, as whatever she writes for your special occasion has a signature that cannot be forged. Her name means “The Owner” in one language and “The Whole World” in another. These definitions combined break down the essence of who she is as she owns the stage and the attention of audiences everywhere she performs; and hers is a voice that is destined to travel worldwide. Duania has been a “behind the scenes” poet for years, but has now come into the fullness of her God-given talent and is Stepping Out as a Universal Portrait. This Lady Leo has a roaring tone that stirs the souls of her listeners and grants her Timeshare accommodations in their minds. What she gives is a verbal souvenir and a precious heirloom that will literally shift something inside of you. You can catch a glimpse of her brilliance at various venues such as, Word Play, Poets Jazz House, Shades of Africa, and The Savoy Entertainment Center. Duania's love for poetry has become the wings of her passion and an inspiration to open her own venue called “The Poet's House,” where you can come and get physically, mentally, spiritually, and socially fed by the many artists (poets, rappers, singers, musicians, dancers, painters, etc.), who will decorate the atmosphere with their gifts. The ever so wise Dr. Dwight McKinney said it best... “There are poets, then there's Duania.”
